AREA OF EXPERTISE

Robert Torres is an Associate Vice President in the Las Vegas Land Division with Colliers International, the third largest commercial real estate firm in the world. Robert has been with Colliers since 1998.

After a career in Management with FedEx Kinko's, Robert was hired on at Colliers by Scott Gragson, to manage a growing portfolio of clients and investments. Over the years, Robert has helped in all areas of research, marketing as well as client prospecting. He has been involved in deals that collectively total in excess of $1 billion dollars. These deals range from 2.5 acre, mom and pop transactions, assemblages for corporate relocations and government acquisitions.

PROFESSIONAL ACCOMPLISHMENTS

In 2008, Mr. Torres was honored as one of Las Vegas' "Rising Stars" – a group of 10 honoree's selected as exceptional members of the valley's vibrant business community. In 2014 Mr. Torres was recognized as a Top 40 Under 40 Honoree.

During his tenure with Colliers, Robert's involvements in land negotiations have helped shape the landscape along the Southwest portion of the 215 beltway. He has helped place two hospitals, St. Martin Hospital and Southern Hills, Creel Printing, Pepsi Distribution Plant, IGT Corporate offices, home developments and several car dealerships.

BUSINESS AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

A third generation Las Vegan, Robert is a product of the local school district and continues his educational experience at UNLV and CSN.

Robert is active in the local Chapter of NAIOP and local chapter of CCIM.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

Robert is currently President of the Board of Directors for Candlelighters Childhood Cancer Foundation of Nevada. Through this organization he is a co-founder of Camp Firefly (camp for children with cancer). He sits on several committees; Evening of Hope and Camp Firefly.

Robert has also worked with the Las Vegas HRC Steering committee for its annual Gala.
