BUSINESS AND EDUCATIONAL BACKGROUND

Dion Campisi is affiliated with the Office/R&D Division of Colliers International, specializing in the leasing and sales of commercial real estate. Dion's experience in corporate real estate includes the representation, of both Property Owners and Tenants. Prior to his joining Colliers, he was employed by Vovida Networks/Cisco Systems where he was acknowledged as a key business development professional in "Voice Over IP Technology". His direct experience in the high-tech industry has been extremely instrumental in attracting and representing various high technology companies and fulfilling their facility requirements. As a native of San Jose, Dion's local knowledge, combined with his dedication to success, immediately qualifies him as an expert on the growth and development of Silicon Valley commercial real estate.
