AREA OF EXPERTISE

Mike has been with Colliers International since 2001. His focus is on representing both corporate tenants and institutional landlords in the East Bay with their real estate needs locally and nationally. He acts as a single point of contact, assisting his clients with acquisitions, dispositions, lease negotiations, financial analysis, market analysis, lease administration and portfolio strategy.

Mike has negotiated over 1,000 separate lease and/or sale transactions totaling in excess of $250,000,000 total transaction value. His vast experience in the market and the relationships he has developed give Mike first-hand knowledge to smoothly guide a client through the transaction process – from market analysis and economics to the eventual lease or sale negotiation.

Mike is extremely committed to fostering relationships with his clients, as evidenced by the high level of service he provides before, during and well beyond any transaction. He is a man of high integrity and is a fun person to work with. Mike graduated from the University of California at Berkeley and resides in Danville with his wife and sons.
